Parent/Student Agreement

Bullying

The SAN RAMON HANSAMO is committed to being transparent with our community with information about events that take place in our group. The SAN RAMON HANSAMO directors and board of members are committed to protecting students. We have rules in place that prohibit the bullying of any student. The SAN RAMON HANSAMO takes reports of bullying very seriously, and site administration investigates them immediately to involved student's parents . We encourage students, instructor, and parents to report suspected incidents of bullying directly to directors and board of members. The SAN RAMON HANSAMO board of directors is committed to working closely with our student's parent about character education and the terrible harm that can be created through online bullying or bullying of any kind. We will continue to support the students, instructor, and parents about bullying and bullying prevention. As part of this effort, we will work closely with parents to protect our students. However, The SAN RAMON HANSAMO is not responsible for any of legal conflict or result of students un-exception behavior.
